

Prof. Dr. Claudia Lux

lux@zlb.de

Director General Central- and Regional Library of Berlin (Combi-Lib: Research and Public Library with Legal deposit, historical collection and administrative library)

Graduate Studies:

Social Science and Sinology Universities of Berlin, Bochum, Lawrence/USA, Beijing/China

Diploma/MSc in Social Science 1973

PH D in Sinology (Dr. phil.) 1986

Library Science

Internship at State Library Prussian Cultural Heritage , Berlin

University of Applied Science Cologne : Science Librarian 1986

Professional Career

Market Research, Statistics: Institut für Markt- und Medienforschung, Berlin 1979 - 1983

Scientific Librarian: Staatsbibliothek Berlin, East-Asia Dep.1986 – 1991

Director Senatsbibliothek Berlin 1991 – 1997

Director General: Zentral- und Landesbibliothek Berlin
Public Library and Research Library with legal deposit 1997 –

Honorary Professor at Humboldt University Berlin, Institute of Library and Information Science

Professional Experience

Management and financing of libraries, management strategies, staff development, further education requirements
Library automation, retro-cataloguing, multimedia, digitalisation, virtual library
Cooperation between small and large libraries, between archives, museums & libraries

Current Responsibilities

As Chair

- Current IFLA President Elect / IFLA President from August 2007 – August 2009
- German Library Association (Deutscher Bibliotheksverband), Chair
- IFLA National Committee, Germany, Chair

As Board Member

- Board of Directors of CLIR (Council of Library and Information Research Washington) Member
- Board of National Library of Germany
- Board of National Library of Economy (Zentralbibliothek für Wirtschaft)
- Board of Foundation Classic Weimar
- Editorial Board of the Library Journal "Bibliothek, Forschung und Praxis", Member
- Editor of the Library Journal "Bibliotheksdienst"

Articles and Publications e.g. about the Library System in China , and Teaching Library in Germany