

Prof. Dr. Claudia Lux

President of the International Association of Library Associations and Institutions 2007-2009

Director General of Zentral- und Landesbibliothek Berlin since 1997

Claudia Lux studied Social Science and Chinese Studies at the Universities of Berlin, Bochum, Lawrence/USA, Beijing/China. She has a Diploma in Social Science 1973 and a PhD in Sinology. After 2 more years of training and studies she became Science Librarian in 1986.

She has worked in the Staatsbibliothek Berlin and was Director of the Senate Library in Berlin (from 1991) before she became Director General of ZLB:

Since 2006 she is a Honorary Professor at the Humboldt University Berlin. for Library And Information Science.

She is a board member of various institutions as the Board of Directors of CLIR (Council of Library and Information Research Washington), Board of National Library of Germany, Board of Foundation Classic Weimar etc. She published Books and Articles about Education and Information Literacy, Information Society, Management and Marketing of Libraries, the German Library System etc.